

Group Life Insurance Claim Application Guide

* To avoid unnecessary delays in the processing of this claim, please read these instructions in full.

For Basic, Supplementary Life and Dependent Life Insurance Claims:

The beneficiary (claimant) should complete the Beneficiary's Statement and submit the completed claim form and the following documents directly to Assumption Life or indirectly through the Policyholder:

- Physician's Statement (not required for Dependent Life Claims)
- Provincial Death Certificate or Funeral Director's Statement
- Birth Certificate of the Deceased

Please note that this required supporting documentation list is intended to cover the most common situations. Individual circumstances may require additional information before a claim decision can be made.

Beneficiary (claimant)

1. If the policy is payable to a named beneficiary or beneficiaries:
 - a. This statement must be completed by the named beneficiary. If there is more than one named beneficiary, all beneficiaries must sign the statement and provide their addresses. If preferred, separate forms will be supplied upon request.
 - b. If any named beneficiary is a minor, this statement must be completed, on behalf of the minor beneficiary, by the guardian or other person authorized by law. A certified copy of the Letters of Guardianship must be submitted (when applicable).
 - c. If any named beneficiary is deceased, proof of death must be provided.
 - d. If the beneficiary is the estate of the life insured, this statement must be completed by the deceased's executors named in the will, and a notarial copy of the will must be provided. In the province of Quebec, a certified copy of the notarial will is required. If there is no will, this statement must be completed by the administrator of the deceased's estate, and a notarial copy of the Letters of Administration must be provided. In Quebec, this statement must be completed by the heirs of the deceased, and a Declaration regarding Heirs must be submitted.
2. If the policy has no designated beneficiary:
 - a. If no beneficiary was designated or if no beneficiary survived the deceased, this statement must be completed by the deceased's estate.
 - b. If the deceased left a will, this statement must be completed by the deceased's executors name in the will, and a notarial copy of the will must be provided. In the province of Quebec, a certified copy of the notarial will is required.
 - c. If the deceased did not leave a will, this statement must be completed by the administrator of the deceased's estate, and a notarial copy of the Letters of Administration must be provided. In Quebec, this statement must be completed by the heirs of the deceased, and a Declaration regarding Heirs must be submitted.
3. Witness signature on Beneficiary Form:
 - a. Individuals who serve as witnesses to legal documents verify that the signature on the document belongs to the person with that name, a witness must be over the age of 18 at the time they witness your signature. Your spouse or another member of your family should not serve as a witness to any legal document you sign. Even if neither party is named in the document, the court holds that your spouse and any relatives still have an interest in your property.
4. Beneficiary's (claimant) Social Insurance Number (SIN):
 - a. The Beneficiary's (claimant) SIN is being requested in cases where we would pay $50 or more in interest on the death benefit amount. If the estate of the deceased is the claimant, the deceased's SIN is required.
5. For a Dependent Life claim, the employee of the Province of New Brunswick is the beneficiary.
