

Teachers' NBTPP BOARD BIOGRAPHIES

Larry Jamieson (Chair)

Larry Jamieson is the retired Executive Director of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association. He taught and worked in middle schools and high schools for 21 years; the last 12 of these as Principal of Harvey High School. He joined the association in 2001 and served in several staff positions. During this time, he provided pension advice to teachers, participated in several rounds of collective bargaining and served during a major pension reform. Larry has experience on a number of local, provincial and national boards.

He has a Bachelor of Education, a diploma in undergraduate studies (counselling), and a master's degree in education administration from the University of New Brunswick.

Marcel Larocque (Vice-Chair)

Marcel Larocque is the retired Acting Executive Director of the Association des enseignantes et des enseignants francophones du Nouveau-Brunswick (AEFNB). He served as president of the association from 2007 to 2009 and, before that, was a Teacher, Vice-principal and then Principal at École Marie-Esther. He is a former trustee at Johnson Group Insurance and was Chair of the Board of a Caisse populaire acadienne. Since 2016, he is also a member of the Board of Directors of Vestcor Corp.

He has a bachelor's degree in science and a master's degree in school administration.

Bob Fitzpatrick (Trustee)

Bob Fitzpatrick lives in Fredericton but taught for eighteen years in the Miramichi area. He was President of the New Brunswick Teachers' Association for two years and later served as Executive Director of the association for 16 years. Bob has extensive board experience on issues ranging from governance to education law to financial oversight. He is President of the NBTA Credit Union and has completed the Credit Union Director Accreditation program. He also served on the Transitional Board tasked with structuring the Vestcor group of companies. Since 2016, he is a member of the Board of Directors of Vestcor Corp.

He has a Bachelor of Arts and an education degree from St. Thomas University and a master's degree in education from the University of Victoria.

Rémi Gauthier (Trustee)

Rémi Gauthier is the Director of Member services of the Association des enseignantes et des enseignants francophones du Nouveau-Brunswick (AEFNB). Before joining the Association, he began his career in the Dieppe region as a teacher and a vice-principal. He was the president of the Cercle 13M and a member of the Board of Directors of the AEFNB and the New Brunswick Teachers' Federation.

Rémi has a bachelor's degree in education with majors in physics and mathematics, as well as a master's degree in educational administration from l'Université de Moncton.

Natalie Kenny (Trustee)

Natalie Kenny is the Senior Pension Advisor for the Government of New Brunswick's Department of Finance and Treasury Board. In addition to this role, Natalie is a Trustee for a multi-jurisdictional multi-employer defined benefit pension plan since 2020. Natalie's career has included experience in both the public and private sectors, where she has held varied roles. She holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from St. Francis Xavier University and a Pension Plan Administration Certificate from Humber College.

Leonard Lee-White (Trustee)

Leonard Lee-White retired as Assistant Deputy Minister of Finance and Treasury Board, Treasury Division, Government of New Brunswick, and has many years' experience within the public service providing pension plan investing and risk management advice to government and boards of trustees. He is a former Vice-President with the New Brunswick Investment Management Corporation and served on the New Brunswick Public Service Pension Plan Board of Trustees from 2014-2022. Leonard is the Chair of the Governance Committee for the NBTPP Board.

He is a Chartered Financial Analyst and received a master's degree in business administration from the Ivey School of Business and engineering and science degrees from Dalhousie University.

Jennifer Morrison, CPA, CA (Trustee)

Jennifer Morrison is a Chartered Professional Accountant with more than 25 years of experience in the pension and trust fields. She is currently the Treasurer at the University of New Brunswick. Prior to joining the University, she held the role of Director of Trust Fund Administration with the Treasury Division of the Department of Finance. Jennifer has been on the NBTPP Board since 2014 and is the Chair of the Audit Committee. She is also a trustee for the Shared Risk Plan for Academic Employees of the University of New Brunswick.

She has a Bachelor of Science degree (Economics) from Mount Allison University, and obtained a Chartered Accountant designation through the New Brunswick Institute of Chartered Accountants.

Robert Penney, CPA, CA (Trustee)

Robert Penney is a Chartered Professional Accountant with 20 years of experience in the public sector. He is currently Assistant Deputy Minister, Corporate Services at the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development. Robert has also held executive positions at Legal Aid NB, in the Finance and Treasury Board, at the Ministry of Social Development, as well as superintendent of Credit Union, Loan and Trust Companies. He has served as board member and treasurer of the New Brunswick Law Foundation and Holy Trinity Anglican Church. Robert has a Bachelor of Arts (Economics) from St. Thomas University and has taught and developed curricular materials in public financial management for the University of New Brunswick's College of Extended Learning.

Michael Ketchum (Observer)

Michael Ketchum is a retired NBTA staff member for Teacher Welfare Services. His 37-year career in Education included teaching sciences at the High School level, Guidance Counselling and being a Vice-Principal at Fredericton High School. One of his main duties as NBTA Staff was providing Pension Services to teachers throughout New Brunswick. He also served on the Advisory Committee during pension reform of 2014.

Michael has a Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Education and a Master of Education in Guidance and Counselling along with his Principal's Certificate. He has also completed level I of the Pension Plan Administration Certificate program from Humber College.

Kerry Leopkey (Observer)

Kerry Leopkey is a Fredericton native and is currently the Executive Director and Chief Spokesperson for the New Brunswick Teachers' Federation. He has held a variety of positions in the area of Human Resources and Labour Relations over the past 25 years in both the private and public sectors. During this time, he has served as a Trustee on numerous pension and insured benefits committees.

He has a Bachelor of Education degree from the University of New Brunswick and a Certificate in Labour Relations from the Industrial Relations Center of Queen's University.