

Vestcor Inc.
Terms of Reference – Governance Committee

1. Introduction and Purpose

The Board of Directors of Vestcor Inc. has established the Governance Committee to assist the Board in fulfilling its obligations by providing a focus on governance and public policy that is intended to enhance Vestcor Inc.’s performance and to ensure that Vestcor Inc. develops governance and communications policies and practices that are in keeping with evolving best practices.

These terms of reference are designed to articulate and clarify the delegated responsibilities of the Governance Committee.

2. Duties and Responsibilities

Subject to the powers and duties of the Board, and to the requirements of the Vestcor Act (the “Act”), Members’ Agreement and corporate By-Laws, the Governance Committee will perform the following duties in relation to Vestcor Inc., as may be appropriate in the context:

2.1 Governance Documents and Initiatives

The Governance Committee will:

- (a) annually review, and recommend for approval changes to the Board when warranted, the:
 - (i) Terms of Reference for the Board
 - (ii) Terms of Reference for Board Committees
 - (iii) Director Orientation and Education Policy
 - (iv) Nominations Guidelines
- (b) triennially review, and recommend for approval changes to the Board when warranted, the:
 - (i) Board policies; and
 - (ii) other documents contained in the Board’s Governance Manual
- (c) receive from the Board Secretary, for review and recommendation to the Board at the March committee meeting, an annual consolidation of board decisions and major agenda items over the past year, cross-referenced to the Terms of Reference for the Board.
- (d) receive from the Board Secretary for review and recommendation to the Board the draft Corporate Governance disclosure for the Annual Report
- (e) receive reports and relevant information from Management regarding evolving governance issues, including news articles, reports from governance groups, etc.
- (f) recommend to the Board any reports on corporate governance that may be advisable for the entire Board to review and consider.

2.2 Ethics

The Governance Committee will:

- (a) review the effectiveness of ethics policies, guidelines and procedures and report its findings and recommend for approval any changes to the Board at least annually (including but not limited to conflict of interest policies and the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct)

- (b) ensure that there are procedures for the receipt, retention, treatment and resolution of complaints regarding ethical matters (including whistleblower procedures/protections)
- (c) receive reports from the President and Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) on compliance with applicable ethical codes/policies at least annually
- (d) receive reports of, investigate, discuss and make recommendations to the Board in respect of breaches or suspected breaches of the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct
- (e) where applicable, receive reports on the personal trading guidelines set out in the Code of Conduct quarterly in the case of Officers and employees and annually in the case of Directors.

2.3 Board and Committee Meetings

By reviewing the results of the Board Effectiveness Assessment Process (see section 2.7), and assessing progress on Board Improvement Objectives, the Governance Committee will:

- (a) assess the needs of the Board and Board Committees regularly in terms of:
 - (i) the frequency of Board and Committee meetings,
 - (ii) meeting agendas,
 - (iii) discussion papers, reports and information,
 - (iv) and the conduct of meetings
- (b) make recommendations to the Board Chair or Committee Chairs as required.

2.4 Director Nominations

The Governance Committee will annually review the board’s composition and the tenure of its directors. It will provide leadership in the identification of upcoming vacancies and the board’s requirements in relation to the nomination of new directors, in accordance with the Guidelines for the Nomination of New Directors adopted by the Board.

Governance Committee will review on an annual basis the policies and procedures that are in place to ensure compliance with NI 33-109 both on an individual’s initial appointment to the Board and for any subsequent changes in circumstances related to business activities.
