Section 2 - Definitions

New Brunswick's Pension Benefits Act, S.N.B. 1987, c. P-5.1, defines "spouse" and "common-law partner" as follows: "spouse" means either of two persons who

- (a) are married to each other,
- (b) are married to each other by a marriage that is voidable and has not been avoided by a declaration of nullity, or
- (c) have gone through a form of marriage with each other in good faith that is void and have cohabited within the preceding year;

"common-law partner" means ... a person who, not being married to a member or former member at the particular time under consideration, is cohabiting in a conjugal relationship with the member or former member at that time and who has so cohabited for a continuous period of at least two years immediately before that time.

Please note:

- The definition of spouse includes a person that a member is separated from but remains legally married to (i.e. a divorce has not been finalized).
- Under the above definitions, a person may have both a spouse and common-law partner on the date in question (i.e., a person is separated but not divorced from a spouse, and is currently in a common-law partnership with another individual).
- The above definitions include a spouse or common-law partner (as applicable) of the same sex.
